

Week of the Young Child

Bring Communities Together for Children—Children Bring Communities Together

Madison Children's Museum Open House

Friday, April 18, 2008

6:00 p.m.–8:00p.m.

100 State St.
Madison, WI 53703
608.256.6445

Early Learning Community Resources

For Families and Educators

There will be tables with resources available for parents, educators and community members from Safe Kids Wisconsin, Family Enhancement, Community Coordinated Child Care (4-C), Satellite, UW-Extension, Imagine a Child's Capacity: Bridges for Families-Birth to Three, Dane County Association for the Education of Young Children (DCAEYC), Wisconsin Early Childhood Association (WECA), The Registry, Madison Area Accredited Early Childhood Association (MAAECA), the Madison Metropolitan School District and the Madison Children's Museum outreach program.

Workshops

6:30 p.m.–7:00 p.m., Wisconsin Early Childhood Association (WECA), Courage to Explore—Diversity Issues

7:00 p.m.–7:30 p.m., Madison Children's Museum, Hands-on activities for nature-based early learning to promote Children and Nature Awareness Month

7:30 p.m.–8:00 p.m., Dane County Association for Education for Young Children (DCAEYC), The Importance of Play

Registry bar codes available for early childhood educators Contact Cheryl DeWalt Robinson 608.268.1231 x36 or email at cdwelt@madisonchildrensmuseum.org