

About Us:

Just Us Kids Child Development Center, sponsored by the U.S. Department of Justice and located in downtown, Washington, D.C., is a NAEYC-accredited early childhood program serving children from infants through kindergarten. We are currently expanding our staff and seeking educators and administrative staff to grow with our program. Just Us Kids offers a competitive salary, medical/dental benefits, paid time off, and transportation benefits. Staff are eligible for a signing incentive and are eligible to participate in the Early Educator Pay Equity Fund.

About You:

You are excited about helping young children learn and grow in a hands-on way. You believe in supporting working families through offering responsive early childhood care and education services. You are committed to developmentally appropriate practice. You have both knowledge and experience in early childhood education, child development, or a related field. You are seeking your next professional opportunity in your journey as an educator.

- Lead Teachers:
  - Required Experience: Experience working with young children, preferably in a child care or early education setting. Experience planning and implementing early childhood curriculum, working collaboratively in a teaching team, and partnering with families.
  - Required Education: Minimum of a CDA + willingness to begin working toward an AA/BA in early childhood education or a closely related field.
  - Preferred Qualifications: BA in early childhood education and 2+ years experience in an early childhood program. Highly-qualified candidates will have experience working in a NAEYC-accredited early childhood program.
- Assistant Teachers:
  - Required Experience: You have some experience working with young children.
  - Education: A minimum of a CDA is required.
  - Preferred Qualifications: Experience working in a NAEYC-accredited early childhood program.
- Administrative Positions:: You are an organized multi-tasker, just at ease playing with toddlers as you are paying invoices and managing schedules. You thrive on creating processes and procedures that help organizations run more smoothly. You have experience in a school or human-services-oriented organization and a desire to provide outstanding service to your clients in a community-based setting.
